

Core role and function of PALC

The core role and function of the NGO PALC facilitators and the community PALC volunteers:

- Support crisis affected people and self-help groups to do their own appreciative inquiry identifying ideas and plans for their own responses;

- Encourage marginalised and excluded individuals and groups to take part;

- Watch out for power dynamics including gender, status and age;

- Identifying locally relevant mechanisms of do-no-harm;

- Help identify additional skills and resources needed by the groups;

- Strengthen real time collaboration, coordination and learning among self-help groups and communities.
